SUBJECT The McNell Brothers and Max Hugel

JACK ANDERSON: Who's news today?

The McNell brothers. They blew the whistle on shady business dealings by CIA spymaster Max Hugel, the chief of the CIA's covert operations who quickly resigned in disgrace.

Shortly after the allegations surfaced that the McNells were shady characters too, the fellows disappeared.

Well, recently I've learned that the President recently contacted their families to assure them that they are alive and well.
